Register, add contact, and send a text letter. Its Simple!

TextBehind electronic messaging is far more convenient and affordable than a postal stamp.

If you choose not to take advantage of this service, you must send physical letters to the following TextBehind® mailing address. All physical letters are photocopied and then forwarded to this correctional facility. To meet the mail processing standards, every mail envelope sent to an offender must contain the following information:

1. Sender's complete first and last name.
2. Sender's complete return address.
3. Offender's complete first and last name.
4. Offender number.
5. Correctional institution full name.

IMPORTANT:
Name initials or abbreviations are not acceptable.

Any envelope without complete or missing information as specified above, either for the sender or the offender will be rejected and discarded UNOPENED without exception.

Connecting Relationships Today for a Better Tomorrow

About TextBehind®

TextBehind® is a communication service designed to connect families, children, and friends with their incarcerated loved ones using our easy-to-use website and the FREE mobile app.

Writing letters by hand, printing and sending photos, and then going to the post office takes just too much effort and time. TextBehind® brings your incarcerated loved one back into your everyday life by making communication more convenient, consistent, and affordable.

Consistent communication with family, children, and friends during incarceration has shown a decrease in recidivism. Strengthening bonds with family, friends and showing support for the incarcerated loved one creates a significant positive impact.

TextBehind® service makes it EASY AS 1 2 3 for you to create a FREE account, add your incarcerated loved one as a contact, and begin communicating more consistently and affordably at any time.

To GET STARTED, please visit www.TextBehind.com or download the FREE mobile app "TextBehind" for your smartphone.
